(7) To work with education staff to ensure the teaching of recreation/leisure skills.

Facility Business Manager

Works closely with CVS and RSC in areas of budget drafting and expenditure of funds.

Inmate Recreation Fund Committee (IRF)

The Committee is composed of both inmates and staff/volunteers. In Central facilities it will be one inmate from each unit (except close custody), and a number of staff/volunteers, to include at least the facility Coordinator of Volunteer Services, a representative from Security, the Recreation Services Coordinator, and at least one community member volunteer. In Regional facilities it will be at least two inmates (three at Chittenden Regional to include the Women’s Unit) and the facility Coordinator of Volunteer Services, a representative from Security, and the Recreation Services Coordinator.

(1) To develop a budget for the expenditure of the projected revenues from the inmate recreation fund (excluding salary) for Recreation Services Coordinator to be presented to Superintendent for review.

(2) To regularly receive and/or develop and approve fund requests according to above guidelines.

(3) To hold regularly scheduled Inmate Recreation Fund Committee meetings with a minimum of at least monthly.

1. An Inmate Recreation Fund Committee will operate at each facility. Composition of the Committee will be different at the three central facilities than at the regional facilities, given the length of time inmates serve.

2. Any staff member volunteer or inmate can submit a request for use of funds to this Committee.

3. Expenditures, not including salaries for RSC's from inmate recreation funds must be directly inmate related. They should promote constructive use of leisure time, be recreational and leisure skills focused, and must be approved by the IRF Committee. The following are approved uses of the recreation and leisure services fund:

(a) Subscriptions for inmate use such as newspapers, periodicals, and cable television.
(b) Small appliances for general inmate use, such as coffee pots and televisions.

(c) All recreation and leisure services equipment and program services and supplies.

(d) Supplies related to the support of inmate children/family visitation, such as toys or refreshments for children during visiting hours.

(e) Supplies related to the enhancement of the living units not normally provided by the Department for basic living comfort. The recreation and leisure services fund will not pay for basic furniture and supplies (e.g. fans, clothing storage units, nor haircuts and associated supplies); these must come out of the General Fund.

(f) Equipment, training, supplies, and expenses for volunteer programs that are directly related to inmate recreation and leisure services.

(g) Clothing that is related to inmate recreation and leisure services.

(h) Cultural and entertainment activities.

(i) Contributions that promote the restoration of crime victims or communities through the support of crime victims programs or community organizations. Examples include but are not limited to; donation of offender made arts and crafts, donations to youth summer camp programs, donations to community food shelves, donations of offender made toys for distribution to children, restoration of bicycles to be given to social services agencies to be distributed to children, and donations to crime victims organizations and programs.

Examples of organizations and programs include but are not limited to Mothers Against Drunk Driving, Prevent Child Abuse Vermont, Women Helping Battered Women and Rutland County Women's Network and Shelter.

4. Any of these uses of the recreation and leisure services fund can be divided up into individual unit expenditures as determined by the Inmate Recreation Fund Committee.

5. Questions of interpretation of acceptable uses will be decided by the Director of Correctional Services/designee.

6. Each local facility must write a procedure to delineate how this Directive will be implemented.

5. Training Method

The volunteer services and recreation services staff, in cooperation with local training coordinators, will develop and regularly administer training for Department of Corrections staff for the purpose of:

Acquainting them with the responsibilities and uses of the Inmate Recreation Fund.

Staff to be trained include but not limited to: Superintendents -- field and facilities, Facility Business Manager, Court and Reparative Service Unit Supervisors (Central Office meeting process), Casework Supervisors
(Central Office meeting process), Correctional Services Specialists, Correctional Officers, Security and Operations Supervisors, education staff, and administrative staff.

EVALUATION

The operation of the Inmate Recreation Fund shall be reviewed and evaluated on an annual basis. Facility superintendents are responsible for arranging for the evaluation. Staff involved in the evaluation process include Recreation Services Coordinators, Coordinators of Volunteer Services, Facility Business Managers, Director of Administrative Services, and Program Service staff.

6. Quality Assurance Processes

6.1.

7. Financial Impact:

Twenty-eight V. S. A, Section 816 authorizes the department to accept monies generated by telephone services, commissary sales, and sales of vended items at correctional facilities. These funds may be used to hire persons, or purchase services, equipment, and goods, and to establish or enhance recreation activities for inmates. In addition, inmates may volunteer to make contributions that promote the restoration of crime victims or communities.

However, the department must reduce its reliance on telephone commissions as a funding source. In fiscal year 2006 funding to hire persons, purchase Services, equipment or to have Inmates make voluntary contribution to promote restoration of crime victims or communities shall not be derived from commissions on telephone services.

Salaries for Recreation Coordinators are derived from Inmate Recreation Funds.
